

NO POISON IN THE PASTRY

DR. PRICE'S SPECIAL FLAXING EXTRACTS ARE USED.

Vanilla, Lemon, Orange, etc., flavor Cakes, Creams, Puddings, etc., as delicately and naturally as the fruit from which they are made. FOR STRENGTH AND TRUE FLAVOR THEY STAND ALONE.

Price Baking Powder Co.,
Chicago, Ill. St. Louis, Mo.
Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
Dr. Price's Lupulin Yeast Gems,
Best Dry Hop Yeast.
FOR SALE BY GROCERS.
WE MAKE BUT ONE QUALITY.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely cures Indigestion, indigestion, loss of appetite, nervous debility, general weakness, and all the ailments resulting from the failure of the blood-making process. It is an invaluable remedy for diseases of the blood, and for all the ailments which result from the failure of the blood-making process. It is an invaluable remedy for diseases of the blood, and for all the ailments which result from the failure of the blood-making process.

A. D. MITCHELL,
—Manufacturer of—
PURE HOME-MADE CONFECTIONERY.
Fresh every day. All kinds of Cream Cakes made to order and eaten in one and two pound boxes. Fruits of all kinds.

MRS. J. B. PADDOCK,
Fashionable
Dress Maker!
Dresses cut and made in the latest style at reasonable prices. Second street, next door to Bank of Maysville.

JACOB LINN,
BAKER AND CONFECTIONER.
ICE CREAM a specialty. Fresh bread and cakes. Parties and weddings furnished on short notice. Maysville, Ky.

FRANK R. HAUCK,
House, Sign and
ORNAMENTAL PAINTER.
Shop a few doors above Yancey & Alexander's livery stable, second street.

L. ANE & WARRICK,
Contractors,
ARCHITECTS AND BUILDERS.
Plans and specifications furnished on reasonable terms and all work satisfactorily and promptly done. Office on Third street, between Wall and Sutton.

PIERBONE & CO.,
—Manufacturers of and Dealers in—
Stoves, Mantels, Grates
Tinsmith, Stoneware, Woodware, etc. Tin roofing, gutters, spouting, and stove pipe a specialty. No. 38, Market Street, between Third and Sutton, Maysville, Ky.

SIMMONS'
Medicated Well-Water.
A Specific for DYSPEPSIA AND DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS.

HAS been used with most gratifying success in many obstinate cases. Prof. F. W. Clark, professor of medicine in the University of Cincinnati says this water "belongs to the same class with that of the Allegheny Springs of Virginia," the medicinal virtues of which are too well known to be stated here. Those who desire to try this famous water are referred to Captain C. W. Boyd, Louisville, Ohio; J. J. Reine, Cincinnati, Ohio; or to his wife, Mrs. J. J. Reine, Cincinnati, Ohio.

SMITH'S KIDNEY TONIC--TRY IT.
HAS been used with most gratifying success in many obstinate cases. Prof. F. W. Clark, professor of medicine in the University of Cincinnati says this water "belongs to the same class with that of the Allegheny Springs of Virginia," the medicinal virtues of which are too well known to be stated here. Those who desire to try this famous water are referred to Captain C. W. Boyd, Louisville, Ohio; J. J. Reine, Cincinnati, Ohio; or to his wife, Mrs. J. J. Reine, Cincinnati, Ohio.

STEWART IN THE DESERT

BADLY WOUNDED BUT STRONGLY ENTRENCHED AT METEMNEH. GORDON ALSO HEARD FROM.

Terrible Battle With the Swarming Rebels--Two Correspondents and Lord St. Vincent Slain--The Story of the March--London Hailings.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—A dispatch from Gen. Wolsey, dated Kord, has just been received at the war office. He states that a courier, who was sent back by Gen. Stewart shortly after the battle at Abu-Klea Wells, has returned. He reports Gen. Stewart strongly entrenched at Metemneh. Stewart was badly wounded in the battle. After the battle at once set him to work and soon succeeded in strongly entrenching his position. Since the principal engagement the rebels have made a number of attacks on the British works, but they have been repulsed with heavy loss. Five of the Mahdi's chiefs were killed in the fight.

Gen. Wolsey in this dispatch reports the capture of Metemneh by the British. He also says that Sir Charles Wilson has gone to Khartoum on board a steamer to confer with Gordon. It is expected that he will return as soon as possible with reports on the situation.

An official dispatch received from Gordon on the 27th until the Nile is by no means as desperate as supposed. He says he could hold out there for years. Stewart's wounds are reported doing well.

A dispatch from Cairo declares that Lord Charles Balfour with a small contingent is pushing on from Metemneh to Khartoum. The official dispatch declares that the march of Stewart and his little army from Abu-Klea Wells to the present position has been no easy task. Almost every foot of the march has been a sharp struggle, and the march of Stewart and his little army from Abu-Klea Wells to the present position has been no easy task. Almost every foot of the march has been a sharp struggle, and the march of Stewart and his little army from Abu-Klea Wells to the present position has been no easy task.

There was a constant succession of encounters from the action of the 17th until the Nile was reached. The British troops steadily gained from victories over the impetuous but easily demoralized rebels. The excitement occasioned by the explosions and the great anxiety concerning the fate of General Stewart, which has existed the past several days, was completely obliterated by the news that Stewart had captured Metemneh, and succeeded in communicating with General Gordon. Great enthusiasm prevails and many congratulations over the success of Stewart's expedition have been received at the war office.

The Story of Stewart's March.
CAIRO, Jan. 29.—On the morning of Monday, January 27, says the fight at Metemneh. The enemy appeared in force in front of the advancing British army. A sharp, fierce battle was fought. This occurred at a point about three miles from the Nile. The British were compelled to sustain a heavy fire for some time. Early in the engagement the commanding officer, Sir Charles Wilson, was severely wounded. The British were heavily outnumbered and the workmen which continued to pour upon them from the heights on the right bank of the Nile.

The wounded men and baggage train were left under guard behind quickly built earthworks, while the rest of the force advanced in the face of the hostile fire to a gravel ridge some distance in front. Here a large force of rebels had established themselves in strong positions. As soon as the British came near, a fierce charge, led by several Emirs, was made against it by the rebel force.

The British troops were arranged as usual, in the form of a square, and steadily advanced to meet the well-armed and the loudly cheering enemy who were rushing down upon them. At the same time the rifles of the British were doing bloody execution. The charges were checked, and the British came within thirty yards of the British square.

The rebels did not stand before the murderous English fire, but were repulsed with heavy loss. Between 300 and 400 men were left upon the field, and large numbers were wounded.

About the English losses but few details were yet received. It is known, however, that Cameron, the special correspondent of the London Daily Standard, and a Harbord, special correspondent of the Morning Post, were killed. The place where the battle occurred is a slight distance beyond the Sheraton Wells.

Stewart's wound, while not fatal, is so serious that he will be disabled for the remainder of the present campaign. General Wolsey considers the deprivation of his services a national loss. He characterizes Stewart as the ablest soldier and most dashing commander he ever knew, and recommends him to the queen's most favorable consideration.

The London Explosions.
LONDON, Jan. 29.—As a result of the feeling against the Irish many Irishmen have already been attacked and wounded in the various portions of the city. The animosity seems to be increasing and the police are on the alert to prevent further disturbances of the kind.

Sir Stafford Northcote in a speech at Exeter said: "It is not so much the damage to life and property that we mind as the effect of continued outrages upon the man who does the Clerkenwell outrage influenced."

Sir Evelyn Baring telegraphs that he has received a dispatch from Gen. Lord Wolsey saying it is his belief that Gen. Stewart reached Metemneh on Monday.

Murder in Russia.
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 29.—The founder of the sect of New Israel at Kishineff has been murdered by a Jew. The sect is under government protection, having accepted Christ as the Messiah.

To Attack Osman Digna.
SUKKIM, Jan. 29.—The Rowayas and Andras, Arab tribes, are preparing to make an attack upon Osman Digna. They intend to march upon Tokar.

Emperor William's Will.
BERLIN, Jan. 29.—Emperor William has subscribed $5,000 for the relief of the sufferers by the earthquakes in Spain.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

The Awful Fate that Overtook a Convict Party of Young Men.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 29.—As a young man named Davis has passed through the streets of Cincinnati and Central avenue, after midnight on Tuesday, he saw a sleigh drawn by one horse going slowly, the driver, apparently, very drunk. He noticed a convict convict named John Briscoe, and told him of what he had seen. Going back they saw the driver attempt to get out. He reached the horse's head and fell in the snow. When they reached his side, in a faint voice he inquired where he was and asked to be taken home. Briscoe and Davis saw three other men lying in the bottom of the sleigh, and took in the situation at a glance—the men were freezing to death.

The sleigh was driven to a saloon, near by and the four men lifted from the sleigh and carried in. The aged man was summoned and the restoration of the frozen man required Charles was the first one able to tell his name, and gave those of his companions as Peter Gorbier, his brother, Joseph Paul and Ernest Schweigman. Peter Gorbier, on being lifted from the sleigh, was found to be a corpse. Two patrol wagons were summoned to the scene, and while the coroner's men were to an undertaker, the other took the survivors to the hospital, where all were restored to consciousness. The men had been out for 12 hours, the men had started out sleighing at 9 o'clock the night before, and had been drinking very hard at several saloons in Cincinnati, where they were stopped.

Where shall the President's flag fly? NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—There is said to be quite a struggle between rival factions among those who aspire to control Mr. Cleveland's action in regard to the flag flying over his coming visit to this city. The fact that the national and state democratic committee made the Hoffman house their headquarters, and the fact that the favorers of a certain class of politicians, and has led its proprietors to expect a contest of the kind, has been a patronage. Senator Gorman and others of the leaders at Washington favor the Fifth Avenue hotel, and it is said Gorman has written Mr. Cleveland advising him to go to that hotel because it is known as a family resort, and would comport better with presidential dignity than the more ostentatious hotel of the Fifth Avenue. The rumor about this letter has disturbed local managers of the party, who resent it as to its importance. It is said, however, that Mr. Cleveland has replied to Senator Gorman that he will follow his advice. Rooms have not been engaged yet at either hotel, but at Senator Barnum, chairman of the national democratic committee, arrived at the Fifth Avenue hotel Tuesday night, and it is understood that he is with Senator Gorman in this controversy. The Hoffman house is owned by the banker Ego, a prominent Republican, while Ed Stokes, of the Hoffman house, is a leading democrat.

The Silver Kings' Prow-Wow.

DENVER, Jan. 29.—The national silver convention is in session in the opera house, and between 500 and 1,000 delegates are present. While a majority come from the silver states, the delegates from the non-silver mining states of Missouri and Arkansas have sent delegations. The object of the convention is to form a western organization to protect the silver interests of the west and to protect by all possible means any legislation in congress to decrease the present rate of silver in the United States. The silver movement was started here some time ago, and its inception, it is thought, was caused by the recommendation in President Cleveland's message to lay away the silver coinage. There are two factions in the convention. One favors the unlimited coinage of silver, the other the maintenance of the gold coinage act now in force.

Escaping a Horse Thief.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 29.—News was received Tuesday of the capture of the notorious Montana horse thief and desperado, Con. Mackay, who, with his wife and children, left here Monday and encountered the desperado and his brother at Nell's ranch, about fifteen miles from here, on the Bozeman road. A lively battle was fought, and the laws were finally brought to law. These two men started with their prisoner for Helena, but were overtaken by the sheriff's posse from here, who took Murphy and swung him from a bridge about one mile and a half distant. At present his body hangs lifeless from the bridge.

A Chinaman Thoroughly Civilized.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Li Kwong, the president of the Chinese cigar-makers' union, proprietor of a large Spanish restaurant at No. 101 Madison Lane, and owner of a fashionable Chinese boarding house in Pell street, left this city for parts unknown on last Friday. A short time ago Li Kwong was rated to be worth some $100,000. He seemed to be financially as sound as the bank of England gave a number of Chinamen have been known to do in the past for the same reason. It has been discovered that previous to his departure he sold his restaurant. He owed large bills to grocers, to chefs and barbers aggregating several thousand dollars.

DAYTON, O., Jan. 29.—Bartholomew Lindenberg, a farmer, living near this city, was on Tuesday morning shot and killed. Three weeks ago while in good health he quarreled with his parish priest. The matter weighed heavily on his mind, and he was unable to rest. For fifteen days he has not slept a moment. Ten days ago he began to refuse food and sleep. He seemed to starve himself to death. He is now in a precarious condition and no food or medicine can be gotten down his throat.

The Leather Merchant Wouldn't Marry.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 29.—James V. Walsh, a leather merchant, who has acquired a fortune in the leather trade, is said to be a bachelor. He is the owner of a large leather goods store in New York city. He is said to be a bachelor because he is too busy with his business to have time for a wife. He is said to be a bachelor because he is too busy with his business to have time for a wife. He is said to be a bachelor because he is too busy with his business to have time for a wife.

GOSSIP OF WASHINGTON.

RIVAL ASPIRANTS FOR COMFORTABLE CABINET PLACES.

Departments that Need a Touch of the New Bloom—And Where Reform Will Not be Antis—A General Shaking Up Anticipated.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—From now to the 4th of March the interest in President-elect Cleveland's cabinet making will grow in intensity as the growing time grows shorter. Rivalries are increasing, contentions are heard on every hand, and crimonial and recrimination will soon be the rule among a class of politicians who are pushing themselves and their friends for places. It is really surprising to witness the exertions made by two or three aspirants to create the impression that there is a possibility of lightning striking them.

Hernando DeSoto, Money, believes that the only obstacle to him and the portfolio of the postoffice department is Senator Garfield. He is a probable member of Mr. Cleveland's cabinet as a lawyer and statesman who would worthily fill the post of attorney general under a democratic administration. The response from the entire legal profession of the country was an emphatic approval. He has character as a man, his acknowledged ability as a lawyer, and his broad statesmanship and high rank in the senate long since made him a conspicuous personage. That he should be named as a probable member of Mr. Cleveland's cabinet was natural. For a time there was not a murmur of disapproval from any quarter. But when the vice president began to appear in various papers to the effect that Senator Garfield was not a sound democrat, that he was Hamiltonian rather than Jeffersonian, the contest of constitutional law. Presently carefully selected excerpts from his speeches on various questions, national and international, were handed about to correspondents, who, in the general death of news, made use of them in their letters and dispatches. It seemed strange to everybody who knew anything of the national politics that the soundness of Senator Garfield's doctrine should be questioned. When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

Upon whom Judge Thurman more confidently relied or who shared his fullest confidence as a man and a lawyer more than Mr. Garfield. The democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

When the democratic committee of the senate he made chairman of the committee on territories and placed upon the judiciary committee, two positions where approved fidelity on constitutional questions would naturally be taken into consideration by the democratic majority.

22, with the Mrs. Lucretia R. Garfield was driving through the public square in a carriage named Thankful Tanner was struck by her carriage and knocked down. Mrs. Garfield immediately gave the woman a $10 bill, which was immediately handed to her. The woman was full as just begun suit against Mrs. Garfield for $2,500 damages. She claims she received internal injuries besides a broken rib. She has an unsavory reputation.

CRAZED BY GRIEF.

The Widow of "Tom" Fields an Inmate of the State Prison at Aspin.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Jan. 29.—The intelligence of the death of Thomas Craig Fields, one of the members of the old Tweed ring, reveals the melancholy story of his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

After her husband's flight to Canada she continued to look up her real estate and a private family named Farley. She was a devout Catholic. After realizing the fact that Fields had deserted her and fled with a woman to Canada she lost her reason and was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Two weeks before she lost her reason an elegantly dressed woman, believed to have been Mrs. Garst, who had been intimate with Tweed and who, it is thought, had fled to Canada with Fields, called to see Mrs. Fields, but after waiting a couple of hours took her departure. It is thought her object was to get possession of the Fields child. Mrs. Fields child, who was named after her father, was found wandering aimlessly about the streets, possessed with the hallucination that her husband was returning with his shameful desertion by his wife, who is at present an inmate of the state asylum for the insane here. She was a Miss Hoag, and at the time of her marriage was a beautiful and accomplished girl. She is a native of this county and a sister of the late Lieut. Hoag, who graduated at West Point in the same class with Fred Grant.

Ladies' Misses' and Children's CLOAKS a specialty. No. 32, Market street.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

THURSDAY, EVE. JAN. 29, 1885.

BOSSER & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS.

ALTHOUGH aesthetic power rules
In all the ways we go,
And sterner order us to shun
A taste for all that's low,
A weakness that we must confess
We find beyond control
Impels us all to hanker for
A low down kind of coal.

Pirates of Pensance.

Thir Big Sundry River is rising again.

Coal is sold this week, at Lexington at 10 cents a bushel.

LEXINGTON arrests her loafers and punishes them for vagrancy.

SOMETHING new in the way of horse bills—call and see the BULLETIN.

This loss by the burning of the flour mills at Brookville was about $2,000.

TOBACCO is estimated to lose about twenty per cent. in weight by re-drying.

NONE of the boats have arrived at or departed from Mayville for several days as account of ice in the river.

Barrels from up the river show that the ice is thinning out rapidly. Most of the heavy ice is below Portsmouth.

A BRAP and dumb boy named Alfred Williams was struck by a Kentucky Central train, on Tuesday, and fatally injured.

THOMAS KARRER, arrested at Paris, has been returned to the jail at Brookville. His captors received from the jailer a reward of $50.

THOUSANDS of people are troubled with a short, hacking cough, who might be cured by a few doses of Balsam of Tolu and Glycerole of Tar.

Two boys, Knowles and Maier, on trial at Manchester for being accomplices in the killing of Rose McCormick last March, were acquitted.

MR. L. W. GALBRAITH, Superintendent of Common Schools received yesterday the forty per cent. of salary due the teachers of the public schools, and is ready to pay it over.

MRS. ELIZA PURCELL, wife of Mr. Ben Purcell, was fatally burned at Manchester Tuesday by her clothing igniting from a grate. Her husband was badly burned in trying to put out the fire.

The Carlisle Mercury says: Ed. Powell, of Mayville, closed his meeting here last Friday night, much to the regret of those who had been to hear him. There were twelve additions to the church.

The people of Mr. Sterling have sent a petition to Governor Knott urging him to commute the death sentence of William Neal to imprisonment for life. No one who was asked to sign the petition refused.

MR. R. F. ADAMS the other day wished to sell a lot of bronze turkeys, and to do so advertised them in the BULLETIN. The last, a gobler that weighed twenty-seven pounds, was sold yesterday to Mr. L. H. Long. So much for advertising.

REV. J. T. HENDRICK will preach next Sunday morning and evening at the Third Street Presbyterian Church. He will also lecture Sunday evening on the subject of "Egypt," as proving the divinity of the scriptures. All are cordially invited to attend.

MR. E. M. WHITT, who lives near Washington, has one of the finest crops of tobacco ever grown in the county. It is bright in texture, bright in color and many of the hands are thirty-six inches in length, while few are shorter than twenty-eight inches. He has in all about 15,000 pounds.

This Carlisle Mercury says: Dr. Tracey and Harry Glenn report the temperance work in the county fairly booming. At Ellenville and Blue Licks over five hundred persons signed the pledge of total abstinence. A Division of the Christian Temperance Union was formed at the Licks with near one hundred charter signers. Up to the present time the number of signers in Nicholas County is nearer two thousand five hundred than it is two thousand, and still the work goes on.

RECEPTION day at Miss Parke's school is Friday, at 10:30 o'clock a. m., at which time the senior class will give a recital of Marston. Patrons are invited to attend. The following is the programme:

Northam Castle..... Jennie Maybush.
The Convent..... Anna McNeely.
The Booby..... Jennie Taylor.
The Blind Fox..... Ella Green.
The Catbird..... Mary Lowry.
The Court..... Mary Wood.
The Ghost..... Mary Green.
The Vision..... Fannie Howe.
The Vision..... Fannie Howe.
The Vision..... Fannie Howe.
The Vision..... Fannie Howe.
The Vision..... Fannie Howe.
The Vision..... Fannie Howe.

Good Night to Marston..... Lida Kinco.

PERSONALS.

Judge Cox is holding eight sessions of the Circuit Court.

We regret to announce that Mr. W. H. Cox is no better to-day.

Hon. Oscar Bond, of Indianapolis, is in town on business pertaining to the settlement of his mother's estate.

Miss Della Thompson, of Germantown, who has been visiting Mrs. E. J. Thompson, of East Mayville, returned home yesterday.

Miss Mamie Byron, of Charleston Bottom, has returned home after a very pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. M. A. Maher, near Murphysville.

We find the following in the Covington news of the Enquirer: "Miss Sue Worthington, one of Mason County's loveliest and most accomplished ladies, is the guest of Miss Anna Worthington."

"Acted Like a Charm."

This is what Mr. Mayer, of Baronne street, New Orleans, says of Brown's Iron Bitters. "A 'charm' works quietly, surely, promptly, thoroughly and with delightful effect. That is just the way this wonderful family medicine works on invalids who have been suffering the effects of liver complaint, dyspepsia and impoverished blood. Those who know its worth say it is a complete cure for dyspepsia, weakness, malaria, neuralgia, etc."

MR. SAMUEL PULSIS, of Sutton street, wishes his friends to know that he can be found at the old stand in the future prepared to do all kinds of fashionable cutting in the best style. Ladies' tailor made suits a specialty.

The potteries of the United States are manufacturing only forty per cent. of the ware used in the country.

For job printing at very low prices, call and see the BULLETIN. We guarantee satisfaction.

COUNTY POINTS.

Lewisburg.

The "mask entertainment" at the residence of A. K. Marshall, on last Friday night, given by Mrs. Marshall for her Sunday school class, was a pleasant affair long to be remembered by those present, who numbered about sixty persons. Following is a list of those who were masked and the characters which they impersonated:

Miss Sallie Kilpatrick, a miss of by-gone years.

Miss May Singleton, grandma.

Miss Linda Smith, a young girl.

Miss Lucy Owens, Princess.

Miss Mary McGee, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

Miss Maggie Hatten, a young girl.

GENERAL GRANT'S GOODS.

An Inventory of the Possessions of the Ex-President That Were Offered by Him as Collateral for His Debt.

Schedule of swords and medals, paintings, bronzes, portraits, commissions, addresses and objects of value and of art presented by the following:

Mexican ex-cabinet, presented by the people of Pupo, Mexico.

Aerolite, part of which passed over Mexico in 1871.

Bronze vases, painted by the Japanese citizens of Yokohama, presented by General Grant.

Marble bust and pedestal, presented by workmen of Philadelphia.

General Grant and family, painted by Cogswell.

Large elephant tusks, presented by the King of Siam.

Small elephant tusks, from the Maharajah of Jhehr.

Picture of General Scott, by Page, presented by the city of New York.

Cracklewore boots, very old, presented by Prince Koon, of China.

Chinese porcelain jars, old, presented by Li Chang.

Arabian Bible and Coptic Bible, presented by Lord Napier, who captured them with King Theodore of Abyssinia.

Sporadic ride and sword of Napoleon, presented to General Grant after the fall of Fort Donelson by officers of the army, and used by him until the end of the war.

Knife made and used by General Grant by the citizens of Jo Daviess County, Galena, Ill., after the battle of Chattanooga.

Roman mug and pitcher, silver menu and card, farwell dinner at San Francisco, California.

Silver menu, Paris dinner.

Horn and silver snuff-box and silver match-box, used by General Grant.

Gilt table, modeled after the table in Mr. McLean's house, in which General R. E. Lee signed the articles of surrender. This was presented to General Grant by ex-Confederate soldiers.

Gold cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

Gilt cigar case, modeled after the Celestial King of Siam.

pany of the Brooklyn Light Infantry.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

Resolutions embodying the first thanks of the Congress of the United States.

